Annual Ladies day well attended

The 27th Annual Ladies Day Anniversary of the Ladies Aid Club of the Galilee Baptist Church was well attended last Sunday at 3 p.m. by members, visitors and friends. The Rev. R. Q. Lawing, Jr. was the guest speaker. His message was well received and enjoyed by all who came. Mrs. Bernie Lawing served as mistress of ceremony and called the following program: a call to worship, by mistess of ceremony, opening hymn, "What A Fellowship", scripture reading, Mrs. Eva Tibbs Allen, prayer, Mrs. Dorothy Pannell; music, choir; welcome address, Mrs. Nancy Hancock; response, Mrs. Annie Harvey; greetings, from local clubs; special selection by choir; presentation of speaker, mistress of ceremony; offering, Meadames, Dian Scruggs, Dorothy Pannell, Alease Browder, Landora Palmer and Delores Bagby. The offering was very good. Special remarks and thanks were given by the vice president, Mrs. Lucille Martin. She also presented to the church on behalf of the club 2 dozen Baptist hymnals. They were accepted by the pastor of the church and dedicated by the pastor to be used for the continued development of the music of the church.

The annual Men's Day program will be held here on the third Sunday evening in May at 3 p.m. The Rev. R. Q. Lawing, Jr. will be the special guest. Music will be rendered by the Mt. Zion Baptist Church male chorus.

The Red Cross and Cancer reports can appear in this column next week. We are being delayed by one church. We want to report 100% cooperation.

Rev. Harrison Kelso will be installed as pastor of the Galilee Baptist Church in Amherst, Va. this Sunday evening at 3 p.m. His pastor will deliver the special sermon.

A large crowd attended the morning service at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning. Two new members joined the church during the period of invitation. The Rev. Harrison Kelso delivered the morning message.

All officers, members and friends are invited to hear the local entertainers in a special service this Sunday evening at 7 p.m. at the Promise Land Baptist Church. The program is given for the benefit of the church. Please arrange to be present.

St. Luke news

The weather was so beautiful and bright and a sizeable crowd of members and friends assembled at the St. Luke Church for the regular preaching services. Those attending were from Hat Creek and Evergreen Baptist Churches.

Rev. J. E. McLaughlin is recovering nicely from the illness that kept him out of function for awhile. He was present and taught the Sunday school adult class. This was well taken. The Senior Choir gave the music. His text was taken from Exodus 20-12. Prov. 22-6. Subject, The Great Responsibility. The conclusion is Jesus. He gave a pre Mother's Day message. The choir gave music relative to the occasion. Rev. Alvin Jones assited in the opening devotions.

The offering for the day was good.

The recognition tea that was given for the senior citizens at Rustburg, Va. in the Methodist Church was much enjoyed by all seniors and well attended recently.

On Sat., May 3, the superwalk for the March of Dimes was an enjoyable event at the Senior Center, Rustburg, Va. Many seniors walked for the occasion. Some walked from 1 to 5 miles. Mrs. Louise Canada walked 4 miles and enjoyed it. Her partner was Mrs. Gertrude Payne who walked 5 miles. The citizens are looking forward to the banquet for May 23. This is always an enjoyable event.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gaines were visitors of his relatives in North Carolina for the week end.

The farmers are really appreciating this nice weather and are busy getting the earth ready for setting the crops for the year. The bees and butterflies have been busy getting nectar from the beautiful spring flowers.
